

The firm is proud to announce that Ronald F. Waterman, a senior partner with the firm, has been recognized as one of the top 75 Mountain States Super Lawyers. Mr. Waterman is the only attorney from Helena, Montana, to be selected for this award. To win this distinction an attorney is evaluated for their professional achievement and rated by peers.

The evaluation is based on several indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement, such as: verdicts; settlement; transactions; representative clients; experience; honors and awards; special licenses and certifications; position within the law firm, bar and or other professional activity; pro bono and community service; scholarly lectures and writings; education and employment background; and other outstanding achievements.

Ron has been an active member in his community over the years. Recently, Ron was a recipient of the 2008 First Judicial District Bar Association Pro Bono Award. Ron is currently on the national Board of Directors of the Florence Crittenton Home and is active in the United Way.

Recently, Ron served as one of the defense counsel in the highly publicized W.R. Grace criminal trial where he secured his client's acquittal. Ron also represents Jimmy Ray Bromgard, who received the largest settlement from the State of Montana for a non-fatal incident following Mr. Bromgard's exoneration after serving 15 years in prison.
